

KM4Dev 2013: Taking Stock on Knowledge Management for Development

July 29 - July 31, 2013 @ REI, Seattle, WA, USA

First Name	Last Name	E-mail	KM Experience	Photo
City, Country		Institution / Organization
John	Akude	john.akude@die-gdi.de	I am relatively new to the topic and researching generally on all issues. However, I may be particularly interested in the conceptualization of knowledge and the relationship(s) between knowledge, development and innovation. Further interests are the policies and practices of the World Bank in this area as well as the K4D policies of OECD members.
Germany		German Development Institute
Sophie	Alvarez	b.sophie.alvarez@gmail.com
Cali, Colombia		CIAT
Chelsea	Babcock	chelsea@makingcents.com	I've worked in the knowledge management space for a little over a year and a half, so still very new to KM. My experience has been more with external KM work. I provide support on an annual conference that convenes stakeholders to discuss best practices and what has and hasn't worked for them in their programs and policy making. I've also has some small exposure to monitoring and evaluating KM work.
Washington, DC		Making Cents International
Jeremy	Bailey	jebailey@worldvision.org	Facilitating a community of practice. Document sharing. Managing websites.
Washington, D.C., USA		World Vision International
John	Bakum	jb755@cornell.edu	I am new to organized KM but I believe learning more about will assist the international projects I work on.
Ithaca, NY USA		Cornell University

Zachary	Baquet	zbaquet@gmail.com	I have participated in generation, capture, and dissemination aspects. I have worked on training development and implementation for USAID staff, managed web site design and implementation, use of social media to facilitate knowledge exchange, communities of practice, and on mainstreaming of KM practices into organizations.
Beltsville, MD, USA		USAID Bureau for Food Security
Melissa	Bator	mjb@uail.ucsb.edu	Peer production, online collaboration/participation
Santa Barbara, CA--USA		University of California, Santa Barbara
Denise	Beaulieu	beaulieu.denise@bell.net	Knowledge mapping, knowledge management strategies, identification of best practices, cross-cultural aspects of knowledge sharing, facilitation of communities of practice
Gatineau, Canada		Consultant, Self-employed
Lissette	Bernal-Cruz	lbernalcruz@rockfound.org	Development and implementation of KM strategies; Facilitating use of web-based tools for enhanced knowledge flow; Designing information architecture ; Fostering and supporting a community of practice and online community for global reproductive health professionals; Provision of technical and managerial support for product development
New York, NY - US		The Rockefeller Foundation
Piers	Bocock	p.bocock@cgiar.org	Needs assessments; KM program design for low and middle income countries; Communities of Practice; (appropriate) ICT4Dev; content curation, synthesis, and delivery.
Montpellier, France		CGIAR Consortium
Katie	Bucien	kbucien@tnc.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Online platforms, processes/technology for learning networks/CoP • Knowledge capture, sharing and application - principles and methods
Washington, D.C. USA		The Nature Conservancy
Natalie	Campbell	ncampbell@msh.org	Network Mapping for project design and evaluation, guiding Communities of Practice, process methods like peer assists, river of life, graphic facilitation, world cafe etc. Platforms - electronic newsletters, intranet, eluminate, social networking, mobile phone use for knowledge sharing. Most recently - the application of learning organization theories.
Washington DC, USA		Management Sciences for Health
Rachel	Cardone	rachel.cardone@gmail.com	Monitoring, evaluation, learning, setting up collaborative work environments, organizational development, systems analysis
Seattle, US		Self-employed
Abby	Clobridge	aclobridge@clobridgeconsulting.com	libraries, taxonomy development, Open Access & Open Knowledge, metadata, information/content management, folksonomies
Durham, NC, USA		Clobridge Consulting

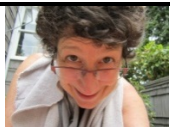

Patrick	Coonan	coonanfsn@gmail.com	Communities of practice, online communities
USA		TOPS/FSN Network
Daniel	Cooney	d.cooney@cgjar.org
Indonesia		Center for International Forestry Research
Sarah	Crass	scrass@worldvision.org	CoPs are my area of expertise! For the last 5 years, I have managed the Global Health, Nutrition and HIV CoP for World Vision.
Federal Way, WA, USA		World Vision International
Anna	Curtner	anna.curtner@international.gc.ca	I am relatively new to the field, but through my job I am working on knowledge management strategies and frameworks within our development agency. Communities of practice and thematic networks, online collaboration and social networking, facilitation, links to information management and knowledge portals, support evidence-based decision-making with knowledge.
Ottawa/Gatineau, Canada		Foreign Affairs Trade and Development Canada - Development Section
Michael	Dougherty	michael.s.dougherty@gmail.com	Environment and development - organizational knowledge management; technology for knowledge sharing;
Seattle, USA/Asia		IUCN and others
Ese	Emerhi	eemerhi@worldbank.org	I have worked in international exchanges with government institutions and individuals between the US and select countries. Currently, I run and manage the WBI's work around developing and sustaining communities of practice for knowledge exchange.
Washington, DC/USA		The World Bank Institute
Janique	Francis	janique_francis@yahoo.com	I don't have a lot of experience with KM in context of intl. development, so this trip will be a chance for me to learn from others.
Arlington, Virginia		The Nature Conservancy
Paolo	Ficarelli	paolo.ficarelli@gatesfoundation.org
Seattle, WA, USA		Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation

Grace	Gabala - Masse	grace.gabala@unwomen.org	I am currently working as a communications and knowledge Management specialist.
New York		UN Women
Norma	Garza	ngarza@worldbank.org	Development and implementation of KM and learning strategies; Manage Online Communities of Practice and networks. Design and implementation of innovative community engagement and K capturing mechanisms such as online competitions/ challenges, book sprints.
Washington, DC USA		World Bank Institute
Willow	Gerber	willowgerber@gmail.com	Supporting Learning Centers; synthesizing information (capturing, adapting, and creating); tools & resource databases; documentation; SWOT analysis.
USA		Management Sciences for Health (MSH)
Helen	Gillman	h.gillman@ifad.org
Rome, Italy		International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD)
Renée	Giroux	rgiroux@fcm.ca	I have been involved in KM for about 10 years. I have been responsible for putting in place our Knowledge Management Unit and ensuring we are building and sharing a body of knowledge around municipal development that builds on the best practices we are developing with our overseas partners through our international development projects.
Ottawa, Canada		Federation of Canadian Municipalities
Philipp	Grunewald	p.grunewald@lboro.ac.uk	Knowledge Sharing and Exchange, Good practice capture, Social Networks, M&E, Business Communications, Relationships
Loughborough, UK		Loughborough University
Nina	Hadley	nhadley@tnc.org	Lessons Learned Capture and Dissemination, Learning/Practice Networks, Community of Practice, Curriculum Development, Toolkit creation, Web-based learning, local and community Capacity Building, Outcomes Measures Exp is in the international conservation context
Seattle, USA		The Nature Conservancy
Juergen	Hagmann	Jurgen.Hagmann@picoteam.org
Pretoria, South Africa		PICOTEAM

Peter	Hobby	phobby@gmail.com	Collaboration platforms, strategic planning, online facilitation (communities/workgroups), small group facilitation (AARs, Open Space, Knowledge Cafes etc), information/data management
Washington D.C, USA		MSH
Leia	Isanhart Balima	leia.isanhart-balima@crs.org	Documenting and sharing lessons learned associated with project close-out Setting up online libraries for archiving and sharing key project documents across consortium members
Baltimore, USA		Catholic Relief Services
Carey	Kluttz	ckluttz@worldbank.org	Communities of practice, knowledge products, KM tools,
Washington DC USA		World Bank Institute
Petr	Kosina	kosina.petr@gmail.com	social media, library/repositories, open access, meeting facilitation, CMS,
Berkeley, CA, USA		Intl. Maize and Wheat Improvement Center
Jenny	Lah	jenny.lah@gatesfoundation.org	Basics of KM and ICT (social networking, etc.), KM strategies like knowledge brokering, repositories, storytelling; packaging
Seattle, USA		Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
Lucie	Lamoureux	llamoureux@bellanet.org	Applying and coaching on KM/KS methods and tools, KM strategy development, developing/maintaining communities of practice, social networking, facilitation.
Brussels, Belgium		KM4D Associates
Nicole	Lefore	n.lefore@cgiar.org	knowledge networks research into use (agriculture) learning alliances innovation platforms
Pretoria, South Africa		IWMI/CGIAR
Jessica	Lustbader	jlustbader@fintrac.com	I am familiar with the basic concepts and applications of KM4D and have been following along on the list-serve for quite some time out of my own interest; however, for the first time, KM is becoming part of my job, and I want to learn more about actually implementing the concepts.
St. Thomas, USVI		Fintrac
Aimee	Maron	amaron@ua-icaa.org	KM strategies design with int and ext components. Design & implementation of info mngmnt systems (intranets, taxonomy development), and other tech tools to support collaboration and co-creation (Google Drive, webinars). Development of Infographics, articles, etc. Development of systematizations, lessons learned studies.
Quito, Ecuador		ICAA - International Resources Group

Sara	Mascola	smascola@tnc.org	Network building, capacity building with local communities, resource development/knowledge capture
Arlington, VA, USA		The Nature Conservancy
Olivia	Millard	omillard@att.net	Local capacity development, learning networks, conservation and project management essentials for local staff, leadership development, challenges of connectivity, issues of language and cultural differences.
Santa Cruz, CA USA		The Nature Conservancy
Linda	Morris	linda_morris11495@yahoo.com	Designed team and organizational KM processes, knowledge repositories, knowledge maps and knowledge metrics within international companies. Started ASTD's KM Network
Modest Town, VA, US		Adult Development Associates; President American Association of Adult and Continuing Education; Faculty VA Tech and University of St. Francis
Jacques	Nadeau	ekatz@fcm.ca
Ottawa, ON, Canada		FCM
Carolina	Ravinskas	carolina.ravinskas@cardno.com	--KM strategy development --KM tools launch and training --Establishing/maintaining KS web portals and intranets --Integration between strategic communications and knowledge management
Washington, DC - USA		Cardno Emerging Markets
Jan Willem	Rosenboom	janwillem.rosenboom@gatesfoundation.org	Water and sanitation program area: from informal learning to horizontal learning exchanges, exchange visits and other approaches through to formal research and publication.
Seattle, USA		Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
Reza	Salim	info@amadergram.org	Health Communication; uses of technologies in rural health system development; mHealth
Dhaka, Bangladesh		Amader Gram ICTs for development
Sarah	Schmidt	sschmidt@msh.org	Use of social media for engagement and communications, development and facilitation of communities of practice, knowledge curation and product development (vignettes, videos, photo blogs, etc).
Arlington, VA		Management Sciences for Health (MSH)

Johannes	Schunter	johannes.schunter@gmail.com	Communities of Practice & Knowledge Networks; Corporate Social Networking & KM Platforms; Public Social Media Tools for KM; Online Collaboration; Crowd-sourcing; KM needs assessment; Standard KM process & tools (Peer assists, After-action reviews, etc)
New York, USA		United Nations Development Programme
Pete	Shelton	p.shelton@cgiar.org	web/social media strategy, blogging, library/database management, data visualization tools, online collaboration tools (e.g., wikis, Google Drive, group spaces)
Bend, OR, USA		Intl Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI)
Jessica	Silverthorne	jessica.silverthorne@crs.org	Capturing lessons learned, developing capacity statements.
Seattle, WA USA		Catholic Relief Services
Ralene	Simmons	ralene.simmons@gatesfoundation.org	Online Community Management; Enterprise vs. Grassroots knowledge flow approaches
Seattle, USA		Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
Judy	Spunt	judy.spunt@gatesfoundation.org
Seattle, USA		BMGF
Simone	Staiger	s.staiger@cgiar.org	Knowledge sharing Social media Stakeholder engagement KM and learning
Colombia		CIAT
Tara	Sullivan	tsulliva@jhuccp.org	Knowledge needs assessment KM monitoring and evaluation
Baltimore, MD		JHU CCP
Sophie	Treinen	sophie.treinen@fao.org	Experience Capitalization or systematization. Lessons learning. Good practices. Knowledge sharing methodologies
Italy		Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations
Kristie	Urich	kristie_urich@wvi.org	Water, sanitation and hygiene
Federal Way, WA, USA		World Vision International
Camilo	Villa	k@camilovilla.com	Learning, communities of practices, facilitation, web 2.0
Bogota, Colombia		Tribus & Nómadas

Nancy	White	nancyw@fullcirc.com	Knowledge sharing, capacity building, social media, building communities and networks, CoPs, facilitation, graphic facilitation, causing trouble, chocolate
Seattle and the World		Full Circle
Ethan	Wong	ethan.wong@gatesfoundation.org	Communities of Practice, Social Network Analysis, Benchmarking Exchanges, Social Media, Knowledge Networks
Seattle, USA		Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
Amanda	Wrona Meadows	awrona@tnc.org
Savannah, GA, USA		The Nature Conservancy
Megan	Zandstra	meganzandstra@me.com	Making research outputs more accessible on the CIAT website and document repository and how we might catalogue and make accessible outputs of differing formats (web tools, videos, slideshows, etc). I am a librarian, with training in cataloguing, standardized vocabulary, information-seeking behavior and database design. I blog.
Cali, Colombia		CIAT		